New Pricer effective January 1, 2023

Valued Dealer,

Attached is the new Price Guide effective 1.1.2023. As we enter a new year, supply issues are stabilizing, and stock levels continue to improve while inflationary pressures remain in most product segments. NDI has undergone a market pricing evaluation and has adjusted pricing to reflect current market conditions. As such, some prices have been reduced, some have increased, and some have stayed the same.

NDI values your business and appreciates your loyalty.

Kind Regards
