WEATHER SHUTS DOWN LOS AL

With a forecast for heavy rain on Sunday evening in Southern California, early Saturday morning management at Los Alamitos Race Course announced the cancellation of its Sunday card that included trials for the Los Alamitos Maiden Stakes.

Forty-seven three-year-olds were scheduled to run in five trials at 350 yards for the Maiden Stakes. Among the 47 were PCQHRA Breeders Futurity finalist Send In A Favor $17,000, Ruidoso Juvenile qualifier Dawson Legate $14,000 and the recent winners Tres Toledo $13,000 and KR Stringray $15,000.

Those trials now will be run on Saturday, February 10.

Due to the changes in the racing schedule, the annual track renovation at Los Alamitos that was to begin next Saturday will now start on Sunday, February 11. As usual, there will be no live night racing at Los Alamitos on Super Bowl Sunday (February 11).

The next stakes races at Los Alamitos are scheduled for February 17-18.

The final of the Los Alamitos Winter Derby G1 is scheduled for that Saturday evening and Bill Price's Favorite Cartel gelding BP Cartel Policy carries the fastest qualifying time into the 400-yard final of this $174,000 race after winning his trial by nearly a length. Armando Cervantes won the trial by nearly a length.

The final of the Brad McKinzie Los Alamitos Winter Championship G1 is scheduled for that Sunday evening and Bobby Cox's Los Alamitos Super Derby winner G1 winner Jeriko takes the fastest time into the $135,000 race that will be run at 400 yards. The $867,000 earning gelded son of One Famous Eagle also placed in the Los Alamitos Two Million Futurity G1 and was a fast closing fourth in last December's Champion of Champions G1 and the Golden State Million Futurity G1. Bobby Cox bred and owns Jeriko, who is trained by Heath Taylor.

AND IN LOUISIANA

At Louisiana Downs this Thursday they will run the $30,000 Billy Montgomery Stakes at 330 yards. This race is for four-year-olds and older females that are Accredited Louisiana-Bred.

The 5-2 favorite is the Five Bar Cartel five-year-old LRH Heart Of Glass who will be racing from the 10 hole. The $217,000 earner is a 10-time winner that won two stakes at Delta last summer.

Two-year-olds will be taking to the Bossier City facility's racing surface this weekend as they run schooling races for horses that are nominated to the Louisiana Downs Futurity and the Mardi Gras Futurity.

The Louisiana Downs Futurity schooling races are set for Friday with the Mardi Gras schooling races scheduled to run on Saturday.

Louisiana Downs Futurity trials are March 7 while the Mardi Gras Futurity trials are set for March 8-9. The finals of these two races will be run March 30.

THE NEWS FROM SUNLAND

Sixty-two head of three-year-olds are set to run in seven trials this Saturday at Sunland Park for the West Texas Derby G3.

The toughs in the first trial include West Texas Juvenile winner and Ruidoso Futurity G1 place Irish Seis $177,000 and Four Corners Futurity placed One Little Liar $100,000.

The second trial has Southwest Juvenile Championship G2 placed Mitey Relentless $101,000, who was also sixth in Champion Dark NME's track record $1,000,000 Rainbow Futurity G1.

The richest horse in these trials is Wired 440, the $323,000 earner that was second in the Ruidoso Futurity G1, fourth in that fast Rainbow Futurity and then was second in that very fast La Fiesta Futurity G3 before being fourth in the Southwest Juvenile Championship.

In the final heat is A Political Cluster $61,000, who was second in the $200,000 All American Juvenile then was sixth in a rough trip in the La Fiesta.

The 350-yard trials will feature 62 head, which is 13 more than those that ran in the trials for this race in 2023. The purse last year was $143,955 when Delight Interest won it.

This race was first run in 1964 and over years has been run by such major runners as Hanks Dial Doll, Mr Hay Bug, Little Blue Sheep, the Walter Merrick-trained All American Futurity winner Real Wind, the Bob Baffert-trained Love N Money, Special Task, Royal Down Dash, All American Futurity winner Winalota Cash, Kendall Jackson, Double Down Dash, Prospect To The Top and PJ Chick In Black. Fred Danley, who has trained about as many winners of this important derby as anyone, has three in these trials. The octogenarian Danley won this race in 1983 with Realeasy Chick, in 1995 with Andrews Ez Effort, in 2017 with Wild Mares Milk and in 2022 with Lethal Avenger.

While Sunland Park for some strange reason does not offer the popular two-year-old schooling races like some of the tracks racing this time of year, the New Mexico track has been having lots of two-year-olds works. In the first four days of February Sunland averaged nearly 30 two-year-old official works a day. Thus far this year some of the most impressive works at Sunland having been turned in were by juveniles sired by Flying Cowboy 123, Hawkeye, Eye Am King, FDD Dynasty and first year sire and Champion Uncle D.

Trials for the New Mexican Spring Futurity RG2 are March 16 and trials for the West Texas Futurity G2 are March 17. The finals for both of these races will be April 6.

AND IN OKLAHOMA

After working at various training facilities in Texas and Oklahoma and elsewhere, horses are moving into Remington Park in preparation for that meet that opens March 7 and runs through June 1.

Remington's first schooling races are scheduled for Wednesday, February 14. The first condition book for the meet is available now at www.equibase.com.
