

Privacy Policy

1. Introduction

The Egyptian-American Law Firm is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and disclose information when you visit our website or engage with our services.

2. Information We Collect

We collect the following types of information:

a. Personal Information

We may collect personal data, such as:

- Name, email address, phone number, and contact details when you communicate with us.
- Information you provide when seeking legal services or consultations.
- Payment and billing details, if applicable.

b. Non-Personal Information

We collect standard internet log information, including:

- Browser type, language preferences, referring site, and timestamps.
- IP addresses for security and analytical purposes.
- Cookies and similar technologies for website functionality and performance tracking.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use your data to:

- Provide legal services and respond to inquiries.
- Comply with legal obligations in Egypt, the U.S., and other applicable jurisdictions.
- Improve our website, security, and user experience.
- Communicate with you regarding updates, legal resources, or client-related matters.

4. Sharing Your Information

We do not sell your personal data. We may share information only:

- To comply with Egyptian, U.S., or international legal requirements.
- With trusted service providers assisting in legal, IT, or business operations under confidentiality agreements.
- To protect our legal rights, prevent fraud, or ensure security.

5. Data Security

We implement security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, alteration, or disclosure. However, no online transmission is entirely secure, so we encourage caution when sharing sensitive information.

6. Your Rights & Choices

Depending on applicable laws, you may have rights to:

- Request access to the personal data we hold about you.
- Correct or delete your personal information.
- Restrict or object to certain data processing activities.
- Withdraw consent where applicable.
