

ABOUT

Renee Becker

Lucann John, Administrative Director

Renee Becker is the Office Administrator at BHGRE, bringing many years of dedication and expertise to the company. As the backbone of the office, Renee plays a crucial role in ensuring daily operations run smoothly, providing essential support to agents, staff, and leadership.

With a meticulous approach and exceptional attention to detail, Renee oversees the administrative side of the brokerage, ensuring that every transaction is processed efficiently and paperwork is handled seamlessly.

She works closely with agents to keep their deals on track, making sure they get paid quickly—setting BHGRE apart as one of the most efficient brokerages in South Florida. Beyond her administrative expertise, Renee fosters organization, structure, and consistency within the office. Whether troubleshooting challenges or ensuring smooth operations, she consistently enhances the agent experience.

Renee's impact on the company is immeasurable. Her dedication, professionalism, and efficiency have helped shape the office into a well-oiled machine, ensuring that every aspect of the business runs seamlessly. BHGRE is incredibly fortunate to have her at the helm of its administrative operations.