Prophetic Aptitude Questionnaire

Personalized Intermediate Assessment Results Profile

A Synopsis for Alexis Shy

Thank You
For the Honor & Privilege of Serving Your Destiny

Dear Alexis,

Thank you so much for taking our Prophetic Aptitude Questionnaire. Truly we found it a pleasure to prepare these results for you. As you review your results, please keep in mind that the PAQ was designed to measure your overall effectiveness, readiness, and competency for intermediate prophetics. The assessment, designed with this in mind, measures your potential or preparedness to occupy the office and dominate its spheres as the Lord needs. It may be that these results indicated you are more predisposed to a prophetic manifestation, or are enroute to the office. Either way, you are sure to gain exceptional insight into who God made you to be prophetically. An intermediate prophet, based on the PAQ's standards, benchmarks, criteria and measurements is one that is skilled in God's kingdom issues, but is not entirely equipped for the complex prophetics that an advanced prophet would easily undertake. With under five years of training, skill, expertise, and wisdom, intermediate prophets such as yourself can ably confront what our Savior wrestles with worldwide in His salvation and redemption effort. Notwithstanding, intermediate prophets will encounter certain restrictions due to capability limitations, experience shortfalls, or the need for additional education. As you read the PAQ interpretations, do not measure yourself by other prophets in your sphere or by those that you admire. Also avoid gauging your competencies for the office according to the non-prophetic paradigms after which many modern churches are customarily patterned.

Instead, view your results from the perspective of Jesus' prophetic rivals and responsibilities, and not just your own prophetic circle. Compare your proficiencies and expertise to those who do not reverence the Lord nor appreciate His church, as well as those who do. The PAQ assesses prophetic capacities and contrasts them to those who have made it their life's calling to destroy Christianity, discredit its Founder, and obliterate His church. They explain why His prophets are most heavily endowed and charged.

With this in mind, ask yourself how equipped you are right now to take on the global issues that unsaved or false prophets have concocted to return control of the earth to other gods. Besides building a church, establishing missions, sermonizing or miracles, how ready are you to restore the Lord's kingdom, dethrone godless principalities, and resettle His church in His righteousness and truth? How equipped are you today to preserve the ecclesia, and to shield and secure Christ's kingdom from them? How informed are you on the social consciousness of this age? Can you say at this point that you are prophetically equipped to counteract the cultural trends pushing in on the Lord's church? What level of skills, expertise, or wisdom do you presently have to tackle the moral decline, spiritual and cultural decadence of this generation? Can you articulate God's mind on its technological, medical, political, moral and ethical issues? Are you educated enough to address shrewdly the filth and perversion in today's education and entertainment? These are all the rarely identified functions of an official prophet.

Honestly ask yourself if your present knowledge, history and experience, and capabilities being what they are today, are up to the task of high level prophetics. Could you confront world prophets in the name of the Lord with your present skills set and win for Him? Can you answer triumphantly their intellectual, spiritual, scholastic, or biblical controversies to His glory? How much can the Lord succeed with your present complement of spiritual gifts and wisdom? Are your present faculties and abilities on par with a Moses, David, Joseph or Daniel today? That is what it takes to step into twenty-first century official prophetics, and what differentiates the prophetic office from the prophetic manifestation.

These matters motivated the PAQ. Its questions assess your readiness to engage in prophetics in a world that is much like the one Christ confronted when He dwelt on the earth with humanity, and the world that Israel lived in before He came. It is with these realities in mind that you should review your results, not as you would if you were comparing yourself to your peers and most cherished colleagues. So do not just look at your record of successes but contrast them with those you must compete with for the souls the Lord Jesus gave His life to save.

We hope you will enjoy reviewing your results. If we can be of further service to you now or in the future, please do not hesitate to contact us at PPM Global Resources. For additional copies of your diagnostic or to sign up for your customized development program, please contact us. About Your Assessment Results

Alexis, as you review your Prophetic Aptitude Questionnaire (PAQ) results, recognize that the level of assessment you took is for intermediate prophetics. It is recommended for prophets, prophesiers, intercessors, psalmists, and the like who are in ministry training or have been in active prophetic ministry for under five years. It is also for those whose PAQ answer choices consistently fall below its benchmark for advanced prophetics. All of the results, outcomes, recommendations and suggestions you are about to read are based upon intermediate level prophetic service, or its equivalent in a similar or related career. If your results appear lower than anticipated, it may be because the PAQ's criteria are expressly for those meeting this standard. It may be too that those falling beneath intermediate prophet levels are more suited to manifestation rather than office ministry.

For this reason, if you are not currently in prophetic training or have not been prophetically active for the stipulated amount of time, it is strongly recommended that you obtain the Beginner results of this ministry office assessment. It is more suited for entry level prophets and prophetic types. On the other hand, if you are a prophet with up to five years of active service, you will most likely find that your scores hover around the 72%-84% range. In any case, the PAQ will tell you what to do to raise your prophetic readiness quotient to an acceptable total as you review your results below.

Leadership and Professional Background

1. Your current leadership role indicated is: Prophet in Training
2. The number of hours per week are devoted to your prophetics are: 8 - 14 hours per week
3. The number of years in your current leadership role is: 2 - 5 Years
4. The best description for your Professional Background level is: Director level
5. The number of years you have worked in your Professional Background are: Over 10 Years
6. Highest Educational Level completed is: Graduate Degree
7. Prior to your current leadership role, did you receive any Ministry Training?: Yes, I did
8. If answered yes to #7, your level of Ministry Training is: Hearing God's Voice and Prophecy
9. If answered yes to #7, the number of years in the Ministry Training program is: 2 - 3 Years

General Statistics

1. Raw Comprehensive Score: 76%
 - ♦ This score, taken from the Prophetic Comprehensives section, refers to your total prophetic self. That means it analyzes who you are as a prophet in terms of knowledge, wisdom, insights, and potential. Your comprehensive score measures how you typically manifest prophetically. It captures what you presently believe about the prophetic, and how you consistently behave or perform in prophetic situations or assignments. The comprehensive score furthermore registers how extensively you engage your prophetics in general. Its results are based on a full-scale prophetic ministry practiced more than 60% of the time. When a comprehensive score appears disproportionate to other PAQ scores or interpretations, it suggests an over- or under-exercise of your prophetic resources. That means your practical application of your prophetics tend to be frequently too imbalanced or undisciplined to be considered reliable. If your overall percentage is below 80%, you should work with a mentor or tutor to improve the stability of your current prophetic potential. This score will be adjusted by the assessment of your present maturity level in respect to intermediate prophetics.
2. Prophetic Academics: Overall Extent of Intermediate Prophetic Knowledge
 - ♦ Your PAQ results register that your present prophetic intelligence is inadequate on the intermediate level for consistent or reliable intermediate prophetic activities. That means your present knowledge of this ministry and your corresponding scholarship and communications should be increased progressively to enable you to constantly perform intermediate prophetic duties and tasks well.

Capacity for Intermediate Prophetics

These indicators report on the factors that inhibit your present capacity to execute your prophetics competently on the intermediate level:

- 3. Percentage of Non-Office Answers: 17%
- 4. Percentage of Unprophetic Answers: 8%
- 5. Percentage of Undefined Answers: 8%
- 6. Percentage of Don't Know Answers: 5%
- 7. Percentage of Incorrect Answers: 24%
- 8. Total Prophet's Office Inclined Results: 2
- 9. Total Prophetic Manifestation Results: 3
- 10. Total 'Below Assessable Range' Results: 10
- 11. Intermediate Level Prophetic Maturity Quotient: 35%

- ♦ This percentage indicates that you do not appear to exhibit a consistent professional awareness of responsible prophetic conduct when it comes to intermediate prophetic service. To reiterate, this result refers specifically to your core attitudes toward prophetic ministry on the intermediate level. This speaks to your typical response to prophetics in general, and the prudence and internal government you exercise concerning it.

12. The Intermediate Level Prophetic Readiness Quotient is: 60.81%--To reach full intermediate office competency, your score should be increased by 24.19%.

- ♦ The above readiness quotient pertains to your core prophetic abilities and their capacity for sustained active service on the intermediate level. Remember, this conclusion pertains to those engaged in full-scale prophetic service on the PAQ's intermediate level. Otherwise, it reveals how ready you are at the present time to do so. As it stands, the PAQ's character analysis and other related factors that influence responsible prophetics say that you have a ways to go to progress to advanced prophetics, which should be quite capable of discharging the responsibilities of this office with proper supervision at the present time.

To arrive at this conclusion, the PAQ explored other factors that affect your readiness to engage in independent prophetic service effectively on the intermediate level. NOTE: If you received an especially low prophetic readiness score (below 69%), in all likelihood it is because this assessment revealed that your readiness for reliable service as an intermediate prophet is quite low at the present time, and therefore indicates a prophetic manifestation is more at work in you rather than the faculties of the prophet's mantle. If you received a median range readiness quotient (70%-84%), it is possible that your prophetic capabilities are presently limited to introductory or intermediate level prophetics, even though they are still below the benchmark for the prophet's office.

13. Guide to Service Readiness or Preparation:

- ♦ The PAQ suggests enrolling in beginner to intermediate studies for strengthening your call to the prophet's office at the present time. This is based upon the benchmark the PAQ set for the office of the prophet on the intermediate level, which is 85% or higher.

14. Overall Recommendation:

- ♦ Comprehensively, your score factored by your emotional intelligence and character analysis adjustment, suggest that you participate in entry level church prayer and prophetic activities as a trainee to learn prophetic fundamentals and biblical prophetic foundations. Your readiness training should also give considerable attention to developing your distinct mantle and enabling you to perform adequately in diverse prophetic environments.

Using This Information

This interpretation of your PAQ results provides a great deal of valuable information. It is meant to join your other decision making tools to guide your considerations on where you or others may fit in ministry. It is suggested that you study each area prayerfully and weigh it against your own self knowledge or your knowledge of those you employ, shepherd, teach or mentor. This extensive profile is meant to help you effectively train, place, promote, or otherwise use your prophetic aptitudes, skills, gifts, talents and abilities. What you read here will also guide your development and use of those the Lord entrusts to your care. You will notice that the word "presently" is frequently used throughout this profile. This is because it is anticipated that your prudent use of this tool will, over the course of a few years, alter your results. Implementing the PAQ's suggestions and recommendations can drastically change your (or others') scores and overall effectiveness.

Admonishment to Leaders

The PAQ admonishes leaders to take care when considering the removal or retention of a leader based on these results. It is strongly recommended that you weigh any such decisions against your perceptual observations and intuitional instincts about those on your staff. You should review records of their historical service, time served, and basic compatibility with your organization's vision and mission. It may be that a structured remedial program with strong accountability, regular reviews, and close supervision will enable you to keep a marginal or questionable assessee in his or her place. Other alternatives to removal may be reduced duties, a narrower scope of authority, or a program of applied study supported by practical application. Give great thought to how you would remove, remediate, or retain a faithful servant, and involve the person in your decision making process. Use this tool as part of a complex evaluation system, and not as a sole guide to your reassignment plans. The PAQ's results are meant to augment your other methods for setting your team's goals, objectives, and outcomes in respect to their continued service to you and your organization. The Assessment Team invites you to avail yourself of its advisory services to assist you with any major changes you contemplate as a result of these assessment outcomes.

This version of your PAQ report gives only a fraction of what your answers and responses uncovered about you. For the sake of efficiency and quality assurance, this outline contains only an abbreviated summary of what you can learn about yourself. To help you understand your results, guide your use of this information, and direct your step in the process, PPM Global Resources requires a thirty-minute advisory session to review your results before forwarding them to you. In that session we offer you an opportunity to take advantage of a full-scale advisement that gives you a bigger picture of how the Lord created you to serve Him and what to do next to prepare for it.
