"As the shepherds are, so are the people": The Treasure of a Good Parish Priest on the Feast of the Holy Curé of Ars

On August 4, the Church celebrates the memorial of Saint John Mary Vianney, the Holy Curé of Ars, patron saint of all parish priests and priests throughout the world. His life and ministry perfectly embody one of Saint Vincent de Paul's greatest concerns and passions: the immense need for holy priests for the salvation of [...] Read Online

Saint Justin of Jacobis: The Apostle of Ethiopia and Servant of Unity
By Sr. Jinsy Kaniyamkandathil, DC Today, I invite you to reflect on the extraordinary figure of Saint Justin de Jacobis. The history of Christian mission is full of figures who traveled to distant lands and attempted to graft the Gospel onto alien cultures, often with as much violence as charity. Against this background, Justin stands [...]
