

Fr. José Gregorio García Rubio, CM, was born in Sardinata, Colombia, 51 years ago. He studied philosophy at La Milagrosa Major Seminary of the Vincentian Fathers in Medellín, attended the Internal Seminary at Villa Paul (Funza), and later moved to Paris (France) to study theology at the Jesuit Faculty. He also holds a master's degree in counseling from DePaul University in Chicago.

He was ordained a deacon in Paris and received priestly ordination in Colombia in 2004. He began his priestly ministry at Le Berceau de Saint Vincent, the birthplace of St. Vincent de Paul in France.

Throughout his ministry, he has focused his service primarily on the formation of members of the Congregation of the Mission and of seminarians in various dioceses. Since January 2024, he has been carrying out his pastoral ministry at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Charlotte, North Carolina (U.S.), where he continues his work with a deep missionary and Vincentian spirit. In addition, he serves as a member of the Confraternity of Translators of the Congregation of the Mission.
