

Nuntia

Congregation of the Mission EXPRESS

Congregation of the Mission

Father Amado García Sánchez, C.M., martyr of charity and hope

On 24 October, the Vincentian Family remembers Father Amado García Sánchez, martyr of Gijón, an example of faith, courage and charity until the end. A missionary among the poor and spiritual guide to young people, he chose to remain with his confreres during the time of persecution. His life is an invitation to live the [...] Read Online

Father Giovanni Battista Manzella – missionary of joy and charity

On 23 October, the Vincentian Family remembers Father Giovanni Battista Manzella, the “trumpeter of Christ”, apostle of charity in Sardinia. A tireless missionary, he preached with simplicity and joy, founding works of faith and service to the poor. He had a humble heart, inflamed with love for God and for the least among us. Read Online

Father José María Fernández Sánchez, C.M., witness of faith and hope

On 23 October, the Vincentian Family remembers Fr. José María Fernández Sánchez, missionary and martyr of the faith. A teacher, formator and man of prayer, he faced persecution with serenity and trust in God. His life is a hymn to hope and evangelical fidelity to the end. Read Online

Letter of the Superior General on the Missions

Lettera del Superiore Generale sulle missioni Read Online

Father Felice De Andreis and Rafael Lluch Garín: two paths, one love for Christ

On 15 October, the Vincentian Family celebrates two luminous figures: Fr. Felice De Andreis, missionary and founder, and Rafael Lluch Garín, young martyr. Separated by more than a century and oceans of distance, they share the same source: the Gospel lived to the point of total self-giving.

Read Online