

Taize prayer service led by Niagara University's Dr. Woodward on the guitar in the chapel of Pitass Retreat House.

Gift of Health panelists as Vanessa Woolery is giving her testimony.
From left to right: NU students Michael D’Angelo and Vanessa Woolery, NU alumnus Joseph LaHood and Vincentian seminarian Andy Cruz.

Following the Gift of Health Panel.
Back row left to right: Vincentian seminarian Gerson Estrada, Fr. Luis Romero, C.M., Lisa Aarakit, Holly Thiel, Sara Reese, Michael D'Angelo, Joseph LaHood, Fr. Greg Semeniuk, C.M. and Vincentian seminarian Andy Cruz.
Front row left to right: Godette N'Siku, Sierra Ashbaugh, Elise Spence and Vanessa Woolery.

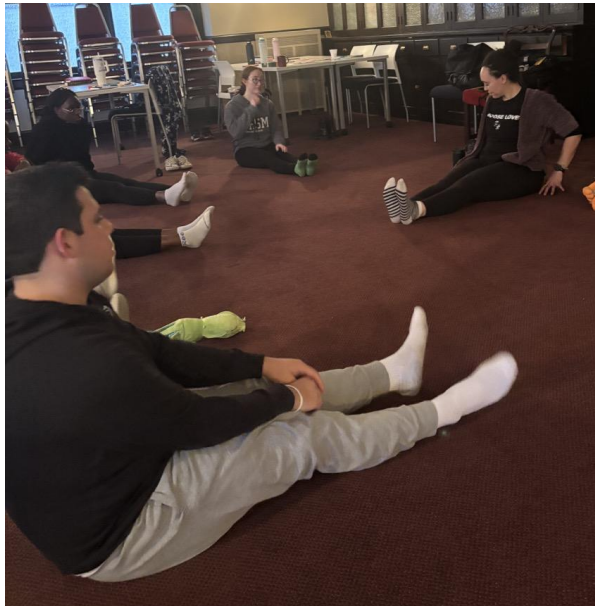

Listening attentively during the Vincentian Field Hospital Talk by Fr. Luis Romero, C.M. and Vincentian seminarians Gerson Estrada and Andy Cruz.

Mirror Arts and Craft Activity led by Vanessa Woolery involving construction of a collage of images reflecting our meditations on how God views us as His individual and uniquely special children.

Caring for our physical health through yoga led by NU’s yoga instructor Ms. Megan Casey.

Group following time for Confession and Adoration in St. Stanislaus church.
In back row from left to right: Michael D'Angelo, Sierra Ashbaugh, Lisa Aarakit and Holly Thiel.
In front row from left to right: Fr. Greg Semeniuk, C.M., Vanessa Woolery, Godette N'Siku, Elise Spence and Sara Reese.

In back row from left to right: Andy Cruz, Gerson Estrada, Fr. Luis Romero, C.M., Michael D'Angelo, Sierra Ashbaugh and Holly Thiel.
In front row from left to right: Vanessa Woolery, Godette N'Siku, Elise Spence, Sara Reese and Fr. Greg Semeniuk, C.M.

Salt and Light Activity led by Michael D’Angelo involving reflecting on, writing and sharing with one another how we recognize each other “flavoring” the world.

Thank you so much for making opportunities like this retreat possible!