www.easytravel.eu

Iceland is the biggest island state in the world. It is located in the northern part of the Atlantic ocean. Population of the country is 364 260 people. The capital of Iceland is Reykjavik, where most people live.

Why is this country so famous and worth visiting?

There is a great number of nature wonders located in Iceland: waterfalls, geysers, glaciers...It is a unique place - an island where glaciers and volcanoes meet.

Would you like to experience whale watching, see magical Northern Lights, visit marvelous black sand beaches, ride unique Iceland horses, see the biggest active geyser in the world and relax in the famous Blue Lagoon? All is possible in Iceland!

WEATHER:

The weather in Iceland can be different due to the location of the country. There is a popular joke among Icelanders: "If you don't like the weather, please wait 5 minutes."

Warm clothes is your best friend in Iceland. Average temperature in Reykjavik is approximately 1-2°C in the winter period and approx. +12°C during summertime. The temperature in winter may vary from -10°C to +10°C and in summer from +7°C to +25°C.

CURRENCY:

Icelandic króna (ISK)

CUISINE:

Icelanders eat a lot of fish and seafood. They also prefer local mutton. Iceland cheese and skyr made from local milk are also part of traditional cuisine as well as bread made by locals.

Some dishes are defying the imagination. For example, traditional Icelandic Kæstur which is the rotten shark meat slices. If you are not ready for this- try Humarsúpa or lobster soup, which is also a traditional Icelandic dish.

CLASSIC GASTRONOMIC TOUR IN REYKJAVIK

When a gastronomic tour of Reykjavik is done in a private group the immersion to local culture happens in many more questions that can be asked and many more stories to be heard.

From 5-6 tastings include high end tastings, as no one wants to miss what's famous. However the tastings are done in family atmospheric places as well, and that reveals the very unique way the Icelandic cuisine emerged from the local community's love to Icelandic soil.

Lamb, cheese, ice cream, seasonal produce and other tastings along with fun knowledgeable guide draw very new experience and a very Icelandic vibe.

BLUE LAGOON ***

The Blue Lagoon company was founded in 1992. The aim was to research and prove the healing power of geothermal waters. In 1995, the research was finished with a positive result, and a few years later the waters of Blue Lagoon became a modern high-quality SPA. If you take a closer look at the architecture and design of this place, you will see an exceptional attempt to keep harmony between humans and nature. Lava corridors, moss and shapes of buildings make the Blue Lagoon a fantastic place.

In 2012, the Blue Lagoon was named as one of 25 wonders of the world by National Geographic. "Some people came to the water for healing. Others for pleasure. But all who came, left with a profound sense of wonder."

GOLDEN CIRCLE

This route is definitely worth a ride if you are in Iceland, especially for the first time. When you dream about Iceland, geysers, waterfalls, and national parks definitely come to your mind. On the Golden Circle route lie Thingvellir national park, Gullfoss waterfall, and Geysir geothermal area.

The historical and geological wonder that is Thingvellir national park is where the North American and Eurasian tectonic plates are pulling apart. Thingvellir is also home to the site of the world's oldest parliament – Althing – which was founded in the year 930 AD. Thingvellir has been on the UNESCO World Heritage list since 2004.

Gullfoss waterfall tumbles and plunges into a 32-meter-deep crevice. The waterfall derives from the river Hvítá and offers an exceptional scenery and views showing the true beauty of Iceland's untamed nature.

The Geysir geothermal area is home to the geyser Strokkur, which shoots a column of water up to 30 meters (98 ft.) into the air every 4-8 minutes in a thrilling display of nature's forces.

REYKJANES PENINSULA

Reykjanes peninsula is a UNESCO Global Geopark. It is hard to find a place with more unique geological formations than in Reykjanes. It is the only place in the world where the Mid-Atlantic Ridge is visible above sea level. You have a one-of-a-kind opportunity to cross the bridge between two tectonic plates. Reykjanes is also a home of Krísuvík geothermal area and Seltún hot spring.

[Optional] Víkingaheimar museum: 15€/person

Víkingaheimar is home of the Viking Ship Íslendingur (the Icelander). Built in 1996, the Icelander is an exact replica of the famous Gokstad ship, a remarkable archaeological find of an almost completely intact Viking ship excavated in Norway in 1882.

At Viking World, you can also find the Viking millennium exhibition produced by the Smithsonian Institution called Vikings: The North Atlantic Saga. This exhibition sheds light onto the Norse settlement and explorations of unknown lands. These two fine projects both celebrate Iceland's central role in the discovery of North America 1000 years ago by the Norse Vikings.

SOUTH COAST

You will drive along the south coast of Iceland, one of the most picturesque regions of the country, to Vík – a charming place surrounded by rocks. During the tour, you will stop near magnificent Seljalandsfoss and Skógafoss waterfalls, see the black sand beach and the scenic basalt columnar wall stretching into the beach with splashing waves from the Atlantic. It is also possible to stop at the Lava Centre in Hvolsvöllur and enjoy the Icelandic Lava show in Vík. The Lava Centre is an interactive and high-tech educational exhibition depicting volcanic activity, earthquakes and the creation of Iceland over millions of years. The Icelandic Lava show recreates a volcano eruption, similar to what Eyjafjallajökull and Katla volcano are famous for, by pouring molten lava into a room full of people.

SNÆFELLSNES PENINSULA

Snæfellsnes peninsula is located in western Iceland and has a lot of astonishing landscapes: black sandy beaches, mountains and volcanic craters and much more. The main attraction of Snæfellsnes Peninsula is Snæfellsjökull glacier. It is famous for being the entrance to a passage leading to the center of the earth in J. Verne's seminal novel.

Snæfellsnes national park is a home to seal colonies, a shark museum and the charming village of Stykkishólmur. You will also see Kirkjufell mountain, Ölkelda mineral spring, Arnarstapi and Hellnar rock formations, where the giant statue of the viking Bardur also stands.

[Optional] Vatnshellir cave: 35€/adult, 15€/child (12-17)

Vatnshellir is located on Snæfellsnes Peninsula. It is an 8,000-year-old natural wonder and one of the most incredible lava caves in Iceland, if not the entire world. It was created by a volcanic eruption in the nearby Purkholar crater. As the surface lava from the eruption came into contact with the cooler air, it turned to rock, while the lava underneath continued to flow away, leaving a magnificent lava tube cave behind. With an experienced guide, take a tour of the Underworld, replete with stunning geology, fascinating rock formations, and colorful volcanic rock. The ideal tour for anyone who loves nature or simply wants to experience something truly unique.

GLACIER LAGOON FROM VIK (POSSIBLE ON A MULTIDAY TOUR TO THE SOUTH)

The Glacier lagoon in Iceland is one of the country's greatest wonders of nature. This lagoon is a recent one, the result of a warming climate. Its surface is at the sea level, and seawater flows into the lagoon at high tide.

Huge blocks of ice constantly break off the glacier, Breiðamerkurjökull, and large icebergs float in the lagoon. The lagoon is not very wide, but it is up to 250 meters deep which makes it the deepest lake in Iceland.

Zodiac boat is able to cover large areas of the lagoon and get closer to the icebergs. When possible, Zodiac goes almost all the way up to the glacier. The Zodiac tour is about 1 hour long. Passengers are provided with flotation suits and a life jacket. Passengers must be at least 10 years old or at least 130 cm tall to join this tour.

Price: 84€/adult, 51€/child (10-12 years)

GROUP Ice Cave Tour, November-March

This tour allows you to experience the stunning blue caves of Vatnajökull glacier. The average duration of the tour is 2.5 hours. However, this can change depending on conditions. There may be some uneven terrain, and special equipment will be provided. You will be excited with the size, the beauty, and amazing colors of the cave.

Price: 160€/person. Minimum age: 10 years. Hiking boots rent: 8€/pair.

Private tour upon request

GROUP Glacier Hiking, April-October

After a short hike to reach the ice, your guide will show you how to use your crampons and an ice axe. You will spend an hour hiking and exploring the stunning Falljökull glacier, famous for its incredibly gorgeous icefall. Your guide will tell you plenty of stories about the glacier, its ice features and the scenic valley, which is surrounded by the highest mountain peaks in Iceland!

Duration: approx. 2.5 hours

Price: 95€/person

Minimum age: 8 years

INSIDE THE VOLCANO, 10 MAY-31 OCTOBER

Þríhnúkaagígur volcano is a unique natural phenomenon. It last erupted over 4,000 years ago. There are no indications of it erupting again in the near future. The volcano’s name, mostly unpronounceable for anyone other than locals, would be directly translated as ‘Three Peaks Crater’. On this tour you have a chance to experience Þríhnúkaagígur from the inside! It takes about 45 minutes of moderate hiking to get to the volcano and the guts to descend 120 meters (400 feet) to the bottom of the crater in an open cable lift.

Duration: 5–6 hours (about 40 minutes inside the volcano)

Minimum age: 8 years

It is also possible to get to the volcano by helicopter. The helicopter departs from Reykjavik domestic airport and lands close to the volcano. This option is perfect for those who want to skip the hiking part in the classic tour.

LANDMANNALAUGAR

Southern Iceland is a land of very bright contrasts as ice is opposed to geothermal heat, refined facilities for relaxation are opposed to wilderness of valleys in multitude of shapes and sizes.

Landmannalaugar – or 'People's Pools' – is a stunning area located in the Highlands. It is an exceptional place from a geological point of view. Mountains of Landmannalaugar are coloured with red, blue, pink, and yellow colours, and there are plenty of geothermal pools in the area.

The 10-hour Superjeep adventure is a way to experience the full scope of emotions that are grounded on bright colours and extreme beauty.

WHALE WATCHING

Iceland is one of the best spots for whale watching. You depart from the Old Harbour in downtown Reykjavík with a professional guide, who is also a marine biologist. The most popular species are minke whales, humpback whales, white-beaked dolphins, but sometimes killer whales, fin whales, and sei whales come closer as well. The best time to see the whales is summer, but some of them stay in Iceland all year round. Transfer to the pier is not included.

NORTHERN LIGHTS CRUISE

As Auroras are a natural phenomenon, no 100% chance of seeing them can be guaranteed. Aurora season lasts from the end of September to the beginning of April.

It's important to be outside of light-polluted areas of the city to be able to see Auroras on display, and it's worth being accompanied by professional Aurora hunters.

The cruise departs from a downtown harbour of Reykjavik and therefore can become a great evening enhancement.

Transfer to the pier is not included.
