

Make Franchise Ownership Your Next Mission

Former U.S. Military servicemembers like yourself know the meaning of leadership, teamwork and dedication. That's why Neighborly®, the nation's leader in home service brands, partners with leading franchise organizations to provide the best opportunities in franchising to qualified Veterans ready to put their skills to the test in the private sector.

Nobody knows home service better

Through our 19 leading service franchise brands and a growing network of nearly 5,000 franchise owners, Neighborly provides over 10 million property owners in North America with a single, trusted, far-reaching source to meet any service need inside or outside their home or business.

First-Hand Experience

Many leaders in the Neighborly system of brands serve or have served in the U.S. Military

Desirable Territories

Designated territories consisting of sought-after markets and household incomes

Comprehensive Guidance

Rely on franchise business training and support from start to launch and beyond

Faster to Market

Our brands' established development processes decrease time to launch

We live & breathe our Code of Values

- Respect
- Integrity
- Customer Focus
- Having Fun in the Process!

Franchising with a Neighborly brand lays out a playbook and processes and structure for business ownership, which makes it an opportunity anyone – and in particular a Veteran – can fit into like a hand to a glove."

Dwight Weber

Ret. Army 1st Lt., Neighborly Brand
Franchise Owner, Window Genie

Military Veteran franchise owners put the service in home services

Franchising is a tool that's helped countless Veterans capitalize on the skills they developed during their service. Neighborly® franchise brands provide a platform for former servicemembers to hone those skills and execute their mission to become business owners.

The mutual benefits of franchising

Get exclusive business benefits

- $5M+ in systemwide rebates through our competitive edge with ProTradeNet®
- Service professional referral system to aid lead generation across brands
- Local marketing experts and experienced business coaches at your service

Ask about exclusive discounts on franchise fees for qualified Military Veterans

Meet the Neighborhood

The Neighborly brands represent some of the most accessible and exciting business opportunities for Veterans, as well as many of the most sought-after names in the home service industry.

Let's have a conversation

We're always focused on transitioning talented military professionals into Neighborly brand franchise ownership. Give our team a call today and we can work together to find your best fit.

Reach Out to Learn More
Morris Shamouni
(310) 901-5611
morris@generalfranchise.com

The information in this message is not an offer to sell a franchise. An offer of a franchise can only be made with delivery of a franchise disclosure document from representatives from each respective Neighborly brand.