The Benefits of Partnering with Blue Kangaroo Packoutz

Comprehensive Contents Cleaning & Restoration with Advanced Specialties

As full-service contents restoration experts, Blue Kangaroo Packoutz owners are a single-source provider for all contents-related needs, including advanced services like document restoration. From packout to pack-back, you're able to offer the comprehensive, specialized solutions that property owners, insurance providers, and other restoration contractors want and need after any kind of property loss.

Advanced Training from In-house Experts

Our industry-leading training program is led by in-house experts who have helped shape the contents field with their decades of experience. In addition to our extensive initial training, we also provide ongoing advanced training opportunities and 24/7 technical support - all in-house - to equip you and your team to become the leading contents restoration experts in your market.

24/7 Support & Business Coaching

As a Blue Kangaroo Packoutz owner, you receive ongoing support from our dedicated home office teams and resources. This includes a 24/7 in-house call center, an estimate review team, state-of-the-art inventory and operations software, and more. You'll also have a Regional Business Coach available 24/7 to help guide you through day-to-day challenges and maximize your business's success.

Nationwide Connections & Strong Industry Relationships

As part of BELFOR Franchise Group, Blue Kangaroo Packoutz owners have a built-in network of partners with our growing family of sister brands, which collectively includes thousands of local businesses across the U.S. Between these fellow franchisees and the backing of our parent company, BELFOR, you have exclusive opportunities to develop valuable relationships, work together on jobs, purchase the best equipment, and build a strong internal referral network. The combined power of these connections gives you an advantage over competitors, and enhances your credibility within the industry.
