

JUNKCO+

Junk Removal & Demolition Services

Top Benefits of Joining JUNKCO+

- In-demand junk removal & demolition service offering
- Multiple revenue streams catering to a wide range of potential clients
- Simple-to-operate business model that is built-to-scale
- In-house training, marketing, & operations support from industry experts
- Minimal staff required to operate, reducing overhead costs
- Local marketing tools, plans, & materials to help drive business
- National brand marketing fund to support network-wide marketing efforts
- Protected territories & major markets available
- Nationwide referral & partnership opportunities with BFG sister brands

The initial investment to begin operating a JUNKCO+ franchise ranges between $200,760 - $297,760.

Contact our Franchise Development team for more pricing information & financing options available.

The Benefits of Partnering with JUNKCO+

The Junk Removal & Demolition Experts

As a brand poised for expansion, JUNKCO+ grants aspiring entrepreneurs the chance to own a business with low overhead costs, all while meeting the high demand for junk removal services. Our approach is centered on delivering exceptional customer service and convenience, making JUNKCO+ an appealing option for individuals seeking a meaningful franchise opportunity. With a strong reputation for prioritizing response time, transparent communication, and reliability, JUNKCO+ franchisees benefit from diversified service offerings that provide multiple revenue streams and great opportunities for growth and expansion.

Proven Business Model & Multiple Revenue Streams

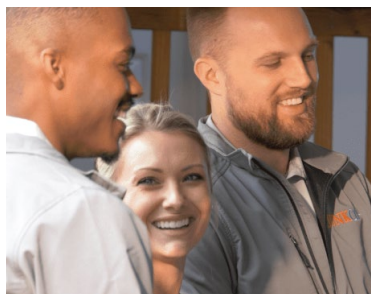

The JUNKCO+ business model is built on efficiency, professionalism, and customer satisfaction. We focus on delivering top-notch junk removal and waste collection services to both residential and commercial clients, offering a convenient solution to their clutter problems. Additionally, by streamlining operations and leveraging technology, we enable our franchisees to maximize their local profit potential and capitalize on the high demand for junk removal services.

In-house Training & Ongoing Business Support from Experts

Our comprehensive approach to training covers both the technical and operational sides of running a junk removal and demolition service business. In-house experts will teach you everything you need to know about the JUNKCO+ brand, our equipment, the industry, educating and serving clients, and more. After initial training, you'll receive ongoing coaching, sales and marketing support, and other resources from our home office teams to help you continue to grow your business.

Nationwide Connections & Strong Industry Relationships

As a member of the BELFOR Franchise Group, JUNKCO+ owners benefit from an extensive network of partners within our expanding family of sister brands. This network comprises thousands of local businesses across the U.S., offering you the chance to forge valuable relationships as both a business owner and service provider in your community.

JOIN OUR BELFOR FRANCHISE GROUP FAMILY!

