We are still in need of a Resources Coordinator, please contact Marg if you are keen to help with this vital role.

MW82 was held from September 21-24 @ The Glennie School. Theme: Faith, Hope and Love. Congratulations to Carolyn and her team, along with new Cursillistas—Deborah Petzler, David Denham, Beverley Spence, Neville Brown, Helen Spinks, Allan Zirbel, Lynelle Moore, Silvia Dunn, Melvis Mole, Helen Reeve, Adam Williams, Rev. Erika Williams, Lynelle Fenner, Karen Smith, Shelly Coulson, Gregory Paul Williams. The weekend was a successful event and all glory to God for the positive outcomes. The combined weekend had many benefits for Candidates, Team and Sponsors, especially with regard to cutting down travel times.

MW82 FOLLOW UP DAY OCTOBER 21—Please keep the leaders, Garry and Sandra Franks and their team Rev'd Rick Grummow, Sally and Errol Turnbull, Leanne and Neil Goodall, Ian and Marg Carr, David and Mary Lupton, Norma and Phil Turnbull, Margaret Head, Nick Crisp, and Carol Bergman in your prayers.

The Extraordinary meeting held at 3pm, prior to the Clausura resulted in 26 eager Cursillistas sharing their thoughts about how Cursillo might progress in future years.

Thank you to all who attended and to Jenny Graham for her help with set up. Marg is busily typing all responses and these will form some hearty discussion at Secretariat meetings. If you didn't get to the meeting, please send your suggestions to marg.carr@optusnet.com.au and they will be recorded with the others. Thank you to those who have done so already. Secretariat thanks you all for your enthusiasm and creative thinking!

Our monthly online group reunions continue on the first Wednesday of the month at 1pm.

Please join us if you are keen to meet up with Cursillista friends. .

Thank you to Marilyn Wright from Logan for hosting our October 4 gathering.

Do you have an interest in music?

Could you be interested in looking after music resources? Please contact Marg or any member of Secretariat.

EXCITING NEWS!

Sally Turnbull is assembling her team for the 2024 Pilgrimage. It is a self drive event, as the last one was, so start thinking about car pooling and sharing the fun with friends.

Kay Self (current Post Cursillo Coordinator) will be commissioned at the Cursillo National Secretariat meeting in Melbourne. Congratulations to Kay! Peter Victor and Marg Carr will also be representing Cursillo Southern Queensland at the meeting in Sunbury from October 26—29. We will keep you informed about discussions. The 3 days also includes a Refreshment Day which will be facilitated by the whole group as an encouragement to Melbourne Diocese as they are currently in recess. This special day will give Melbourne Cursillistas an opportunity to meet and feel supported.

Vale: May they rest in peace and rise in glory!

St Francis Festival at St Francis College.

October 14 will see our first Cursillo stall at the Festival. Many Diocesan groups will be there and we hope to show our colours with an information stall. Nick from Servant Community will be there with Marg. Apart from information, some home made relish and other items will be sold to help our Cursillo funds. Other donations are welcome.

See you on October 14 @ Freshwater Ultreya or St Francis Festival Milton.

Thank God for the success of our first combined Cursillo
